

Connecting to Your Excellence

Best Selling Author and Keynote Speaker – Shola Richards

UCSF Learning & Organization Development Town Hall

Connecting to Your Excellence- How to Create Lasting Positive Change in Any Work Environment

This highly-engaging, memorable and actionable keynote will provide participants with the skills, knowledge and tools to make a lasting positive change on their work teams. And yes, anyone can do this regardless of job rank, years of experience, level of education or professional title. In this keynote, Shola will introduce three questions that will positively transform how we work, live and lead—starting today. Additionally, Shola will present a strategy to help participants to deal more effectively with the most difficult situations in their lives (professionally or otherwise), while also providing a tool to ensure that the participants stay committed to putting these strategies into action long term.

Speaker's Bio

Shola is a dynamic keynote speaker, best-selling author of Making Work Work, a workplace positivity expert, and an award-winning Director of Training for UCLA Health. His articles have been read by readers in over 160 countries, and his work has been featured in the Huffington Post, Forbes, Black Enterprise, Business Insider Australia, and in numerous other publications all over the world. He is recognized as an authority on workplace happiness and engagement.

Date: March 20, 2017

Time: 12 - 1:00 pm

Location: Cole Hall at Parnassus and live stream to Mission Bay Rock Hall

Registration – Opens Tuesday, February 14 at learningcenter.ucsfmedicalcenter.org/ Search Words “Connecting to Excellence”

First 50 who register at each location will receive a copy of Shola's book