

UCSF Principles of Community

UCSF seeks to offer all campus community members an equitable, inclusive, welcoming, secure, responsive, and affirming environment that fosters mutual respect, empathy and trust.

All are asked to acknowledge and practice these basic principles:

- We recognize, value, and affirm that our rich diversity contributes to the excellence of the University and enhances the quality of campus life for individuals and groups.
- We reject all acts of discrimination as affirmed by the UC Diversity Statement. We commit ourselves to fostering an atmosphere of equity and inclusion.
- We are committed to providing a welcoming campus environment where each person can benefit from the highest principles of openness and integrity.
- We affirm the right of freedom of expression within the UCSF community and commit to the highest standards of civility and decency.
- We will form a campus infrastructure that is responsive to the needs of our community.
- We affirm that each member of the campus community is expected to work in accord with these principles and to make individual efforts to enhance the quality of campus life for all.
