

Recruitment of Underrepresented Study Populations

October 31, 2017

10am-12pm

Genentech Hall, UCSF Mission Bay Campus

UCSF

Register now for the upcoming UCSF Recruitment Seminar, co-hosted by the Differences Matter Research Action Group and the CTSI Participant Recruitment Program.

Recruitment of Underrepresented Study Populations

This seminar will feature speakers and panelists who will discuss the importance of including underrepresented populations in research and provide tips and real examples of successful approaches and lessons learned.

Register Here

Details

October 31, 2017, 10am-12pm

Lunch and networking 12pm-1pm

Genentech Auditorium,
UCSF Mission Bay Campus

Who should attend?

Anyone engaged in participant recruitment: faculty researchers, CRCs, project directors, and more!

Questions?

Contact Molly.Belinski@ucsf.edu

Speakers

Esteban Burchard, MD, MPH
Professor, UCSF School of Pharmacy

Rebecca Sudore, MD
Professor, UCSF School of Medicine

Panelists

William Brown, PhD, DrPH
Assistant Professor, UCSF School of Medicine

Linda Franck, RN, PhD, FAAN
Professor, UCSF School of Nursing

Stacy Osua, BS
Research Associate, UCSF Center for Vulnerable Populations

Robert Rodriguez, MD
Professor, UCSF School of Medicine

Shanell Williams
Community Engagement Specialist, California Preterm Birth Initiative