UCSF DO NO HARM COALITION PRESENTS

“REFRAMING THE DIALOGUE: RACE, POLICE VIOLENCE, AND PUBLIC HEALTH”

Monday
May 23, 2016
Cole Hall
5-6:30 PM

Lecture by Rupa Marya, MD
Division of Hospitalist Medicine

Followed by a Panel Discussion featuring the Frisco5 Hunger Strikers, UCSF Medical Students, and SFPD Sergeant Yulanda Williams, president of the black officers group Officers for Justice

Musical Accompaniment by jazz bassist Marcus Shelby
Co-Sponsored by UCSF PRIME, UCSF Global Health Group, and the Heal Initiative

Please join us for a student-led initiative to examine closely the need to address police violence and racism as public health issues directly affecting the safety of communities in the US and particularly here in San Francisco.

This event is open to UCSF and the public. Dinner is provided.

The Do No Harm Coalition at UCSF is a group of students, faculty and staff from the entire campus who are interested in furthering the local national dialogue around community policing and public safety for all.
