THE SHIFTING BORDERS OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM:

DIVERSITY AND FREE SPEECH ON CAMPUS TODAY

UNIVERSITY

for Free Speech and Civic Engagement

Concepts such as hate speech, safe spaces, micro-aggressions, gender inclusive pronouns and trigger warnings are not new to discussions on diversity in academic settings. The changing tides of the times bring us back to these discussions. Join us for a friendly discussion on free speech and diversity on campus.

Gamelyn F. Oduardo-Sierra is a civil rights lawyer and Fellow for UC's National Center for Free Speech and Civic Engagement.
